Contact: Ms. Trish Graham

Beads have always been the passion of Trish Graham. She has lived in Africa for over 20 years and works with talented local craftsmen. Together they create new and interesting beads based on tradition.

Ghana has a long tradition of bead making and bead use. Focussing on beads that are made locally from recycled materials, Trish Graham has created a unique line of contemporary pieces.

Ahene pa Nkasa Ltd pays special attention to details and requirements and they do their best to satisfy the expectations of their customers.
